WEAC Scholarship Criteria for Eligibility and Evaluation

To be eligible for a WEAC Scholarship, the applicant must:

1. Be the child of a WEAC member in good standing. The applicant may also be the child of a person who died while holding membership.
2. Present a completed application consisting of:
 - a. This form;
 - b. A current official high school transcript;
 - c. An essay, not to exceed 300 words, stating why the applicant wants to enter the education profession and what he/she hopes to accomplish;
 - d. A statement signed by the applicant's guidance counselor or by administrative personnel certifying the applicant's cumulative grade point average on a four-point scale and certifying class rank; and
 - e. Two (2) letters of recommendation;
 1. One (1) letter must be from a classroom teacher who is familiar with the applicant's academic performance and school activities; and
 2. One (1) letter must be from a community member, outside the school setting, who is familiar with the applicant's involvement in community activities.
3. Be a high school senior.
4. Planning to pursue an education major or minor and intending to be employed in the education profession in Wisconsin.
5. The applicant must rank in the top 25% of his/her graduating class or have achieved a 3.0 cumulative grade point average (based on a non-weighted 4.0 scale) at the time of application. (All A's = 4 points, B's = 3 points, C's = 2 points, D's = 1 point, F's = 0 points.)
6. Show evidence of involvement in school and community activities.

The WEAC Scholarship is established to encourage entrance into the field of education by children of eligible members. Those chosen to receive the scholarship will be granted $1,450 per year for up to four years of study, to be used to pay for all or part of the recipient's fees and tuition, provided they remain eligible.

WEAC Scholarship Continuation of Eligibility

1. In order to continue eligibility, a recipient must maintain a cumulative grade average of 3.00 on a 4.00 point scale and must continue to be enrolled in an education major or minor.
2. In order to continue eligibility after the first year of receiving a WEAC scholarship, a recipient's advisor must submit a statement signed by that advisor certifying that the recipient is enrolled in an education major or minor and is maintaining a 3.00 average on a 4.00 point scale. Such statement must be received by WEAC directly from the advisor no later than July 1 of each year. It is the responsibility of the recipient to ensure that the advisor writes and mails the appropriate statement in a timely manner.
3. A recipient may retain eligibility for up to one year of non-attendance at a college or university for health reasons. In order to retain eligibility the recipient must submit a statement from a physician explaining the reason(s) for non-attendance. Such statements must be submitted at the beginning of each school term. During the period of non-attendance the student will not receive the scholarship payments. Scholarship payments and eligibility will be extended for a time equal to the period of non-attendance for health reasons.
4. The recipient's parent must remain a WEAC member in good standing. If the recipient's parent/guardian dies while a WEAC member, the recipient would remain eligible to receive the scholarship.
5. If the parent's membership is not continued and the scholarship is discontinued, the recipient may appeal to the WEAC Board of Directors.
