INSTRUCTIONS FOR NEA R.A. DELEGATE ELECTIONS

Under federal law, NEA RA Delegate Elections are to be completed by a SECRET BALLOT VOTE. Elections can be conducted either by an in-person vote or by mail. Voting through email, Survey Monkey or similar electronic means is not permitted. Please adhere to the following instructions when conducting your elections.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ELECTIONS BY MAIL

PREPARATIONS

- Review provisions in your local constitution and bylaws that address NEA delegate elections.
- Update union’s membership list to insure each member’s address is correct.
- Assign a sequential number to each member’s name on the voter eligibility list. This number will be placed on the voter’s return ballot envelope and will be used to facilitate ballot sorting and voter identification at the tally of ballots.
- Select a deadline for ballots to be actually received (not postmarked).
- P.O. Boxes – Do not use the union’s regular P.O. Box to conduct elections. Arrange for a restricted-access P.O. Box to be used exclusively for receiving voted ballots. Instruct the post office that the P.O. Box may be accessed only by specified union election officials on a specified date. Set up a second P.O. Box to receive ballot packages returned undelivered.
- Please consult the Election Planner found at Appendix A.

NOTICE OF NOMINATIONS

- All eligible members should receive notice of the date, time, place and format for making and accepting nominations.
- The notice of nomination does not need to mailed to all members but it should be posted prominently (e.g. on the first page) on the association(s)’ web-site or newsletter.
- The nomination notice must be posted sufficiently in advance of the deadline for making nominations so that members have a reasonable opportunity to nominate candidates.
- WEAC’s notice of nominations can be found at Appendix B.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES

- Provide notice to the candidates of all election and campaign rules including:
  - The right to inspect, once within 30 days before the election, a list of all members
  - The right to have the union distribute campaign literature (at the candidate’s expense)
  - The prohibition against the use of union funds to support any person’s candidacy
  - The date, time and place for preparation and mailing of ballots, ballot package remailing, ballot package pick up at the post office and tally; and
  - The right for candidates to have observers at the preparation and mailing of ballots, undeliverable ballot package pick-up from the post-office and remailing, voted ballot pick-up from the post-office and tally.
- WEAC’s memorandum to candidates can be found at Appendix C and memorandum to locals regarding use of election funds can be found at Appendix D.
- Election officials cannot discriminate against or favor candidates. All campaign rules must be enforced uniformly.
Balloons Preparation

- Determine the order of candidates in a uniform, non-discriminatory manner, such as alphabetically, by lot or by having candidates draw straws.
- Make sure candidate names are spelled correctly.
- Clearly explain voting instructions
- WEAC’s ballot can be found at Appendix E.

Notice of Election & Ballot

- A notice of election must be mailed to each eligible member at least 15 days prior to the election. The notice of election can be sent with the ballot, as long as it meets the 15-day requirement. The notice of election should advise members on how to request a replacement ballot if they do not receive a ballot or it is spoiled while voting.
- The election notice should also be posted prominently (e.g. on the first page) on the local, Regional or WEAC website and newsletter or in other union publications.
- Mail the notice of election and ballot together.
- WEAC’s notice of election can be found at Appendix F.
- Three envelopes should be used to conduct the election. Instructions regarding the envelopes and mailing can be found on the Department of Labor website as follows:

Each member should receive the following:

1 Secret Ballot Envelope

This small envelope, either blank or printed with the words “Secret Ballot Envelope,” will be used by the voter to enclose the marked ballot. Advise members not to place any identifying information on this envelope.

2 Return Ballot Envelope

This envelope will be used by the voter to return the Secret Ballot Envelope with the marked ballot sealed inside. It should be pre-addressed to the post office box for returned voted ballots and contain space for the voter to print his or her name and address in the upper left corner. If a voter identification number has been assigned (which corresponds to the voter’s number on the voter eligibility list), it should appear in the lower left corner of this envelope.

Avoid placing any voter address information on the reverse side of the return ballot envelope. If the union uses pre-printed labels containing voter names and addresses for voter identification purposes, the labels should be affixed to the front, upper left corner of the return ballot envelopes, not the reverse side. Voter address information on the reverse side of the return ballot envelope can result in the voted ballots being returned to the voter rather than being sent for inclusion in the ballot count.

3 Large Mailing Envelope

Factory Workers Local 999 Election Committee
P.O. Box 122
Columbia, MO 65203

John Doe
1018 Bradshaw Avenue
Columbia, MO 65203

4-1/8" x 9-1/2" (No. 10 envelope)

This large envelope will be used to mail the other four mail ballot items to each member. The return address should be a post office box designated solely for the receipt of ballot packages returned undelivered so that they can be remailed by election officials after obtaining correct addresses.

- Election officials must be able to account for all ballots printed. This means the number of ballots printed, minus the number of ballots mailed to members, must equal the number of unused ballots at the end of the election.
- Ballot packages should be sent by First Class Mail. Obtain a receipt from the post office of the number of ballot packages sent.

RETRIEVING BALLOTS

- On designated dates and times, election officials should pick up ballot packages returned as undeliverable. If accurate addresses can be obtained, re-mail the ballot packages as soon as possible. Observers have the right to be present for the pickup and remailing of ballot packages.
- Keep a list of the names and addresses of members who request replacement ballots. Replacement ballot return envelopes should be marked with a “D” for duplicate.
- A record must be kept of all replacement ballots sent and all ballot packages which were re-mailed after being returned undelivered, including dates received and mailed.
- Election officials should pick up the voted ballots from the access-restricted P.O. Box only at the designated date and time, allowing the candidates’ observers to be present.

COUNTING BALLOTS

- Record the number of returned ballot envelopes. Put the returned ballot envelopes in numerical order by member number.
- Call out the name of each voter and mark the name off on the voter eligibility list. If a voter’s name isn’t on the list, mark both the list and the envelope with a “C” for challenged ballot. If a voter returns a ballot marked “D” for duplicate, indicate this on the voter eligibility list and on the list of replacement ballots. If a voter returns two ballots, the replacement ballot will be counted but the other ballot will be voided.

- Resolve any challenged ballots before any secret ballot envelopes are opened. The election officials should keep a record of decisions made and explain the rational for the decision to election observers.
- Remove (but don’t open) the Secret Ballot Envelopes from the return envelopes. Mix the Secret Ballot Envelopes together to preserve secrecy.
- Remove the ballots from the Secret Ballot Envelopes and place the ballots face down. Void any ballots that include identifying information.
- Tally the votes.
- Record and announce the results. Make a note of the number of valid ballots counted, the number of void ballots and the number of unresolved challenged ballots.

POST ELECTION ACTIVITY
- Publish and post the results.
- Keep all nomination records, return ballot envelopes, Secret Ballot Envelopes, voter eligibility lists, tally sheets, and used and unused ballots for at least one year.
- Return to the post office and pick up ballots received after the deadline. Do not open the envelopes but mark them as “Void – Received After Deadline.” Retain these with the other election materials.

OBSERVERS
- Each candidate has the right to have an observer present for the following:
  - Preparation and mailing of ballots
  - Retrieval and remailing of ballot packages returned as undeliverable
  - Retrieval of voted ballots from the post office
  - Tabulation of ballots
- Observers are not permitted to handle any ballots or envelopes

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ELECTIONS IN PERSON

- Review provisions in your local constitution and bylaws that address NEA delegate elections.
- Select a polling site and schedule polling hours.
- Prepare an accurate voter eligibility list for use at the polls.
- Arrange preparation of ballots.
- Please refer to the Election Planner found at Appendix A.

NOTICE OF NOMINATIONS
- All eligible members shall receive notice of the date, time, place and format for making and accepting nominations.
- The notice of nomination does not need to mailed to all members but it should be posted prominently (e.g. on the first page) on the association(s)’ web-site or newsletter.

• Close the polls on time but allow eligible voters in line at the time of closing to vote.

COUNTING BALLOTS

• Do not begin to count votes until the polls are closed.
• Open the ballot box in the presence of observers.

MEMORANDUM

To: WEAC Members in Good Standing

From: Bob Baxter, Executive Director

Date: September 2019

Re: Nominations Notice for Election of Wisconsin 2020-22 State Delegates to the NEA Representative Assembly.

Members of the WEAC will elect delegates to the NEA Representative Assembly for a three-year term in February 2020. The 2020 NEA Convention will be held July 2-6 in Atlanta, Georgia; the 2021 NEA Convention will be held July 2-6 in Denver, Colorado; and the 2022 NEA Convention will be held in Dallas, Texas.

Members planning to seek election as delegates are required to file their declaration of candidacy in the office of the WEAC Executive Director, received no later than December 1, 2019.

Forms for declaration of candidacy and for submission of candidacy information for publication on the WEAC web site can be found at http://weac.org/delegates/. Please feel free to duplicate the forms or call my office for additional copies. Election procedures may also be found at http://www.weac.org/delegates.

It is the policy of NEA that the delegation from each state to the NEA Representative Assembly shall include ethnic minority delegates in numbers commensurate with the population of the state, and the Wisconsin Education Association Council is committed to the achievement of this goal in the Wisconsin delegation. The WEAC Board of Directors has approved and submitted to the NEA its plan to achieve ethnic minority representation pursuant to NEA Bylaw 3-1(g). I ask you to assist WEAC in fulfilling the NEA/WEAC goals for ethnic minority representation by encouraging minorities to seek election as state and/or local delegates.

The NEA will notify the WEAC of the total ethnic minority population in the state based on the most current U.S. census and the percentage goal for each ethnic minority group. While proportional representation cannot be a requirement, ethnic minority representation remains a goal of the United Education Profession.

Please note that NEA members in the non-supervisory active and education support professional (ESP) categories are eligible to run as delegates and to vote.
